ORDER

Upon the government's application, at the defendant's request and with the defendant's agreement, under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(8)(A), for a fifth exclusion of time in computing the time within which an information or indictment must be filed and an extension of time to seek the return an indictment or file an information in the above-captioned cause,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that time is excluded from computing the time within which to file an indictment or information against the named defendant and the time to file an indictment or information is extended to and including November 9, 2007. The Court finds that the ends of justice served by the extension to November 9, 2007, outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the following reasons:

1. The failure to grant such an extension would result in a miscarriage of justice;
2. It would be unreasonable, in the absence of an extension, to expect return and filing of an indictment in the time period specified in Section 3161(b) because of the time that the arrest occurred and because the facts upon which the grand jury must base its determination are complex concerning the nature of the prosecution; and

3. The failure to grant such an extension to November 9, 2007 under the circumstances would deny the attorneys for the defendant reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
